

The Younis Mansi Essa Scholarship for Healthcare Professionals

Housed at the Center for Arab American Philanthropy (CAAP)

Scholarship Deadline: 11:59 pm on Sunday, July 17, 2022

About the Scholarship

This scholarship is awarded to exceptionally driven undergraduate students in Southeast Michigan who are studying in the healthcare field at an accredited university or community college. It is anticipated that scholarships will be $1,000. The fund will make all grant distributions directly to the student's affiliated college or university.

The story behind Younis Mansi Essa

Dena Essa has been a nurse since 1995. It prepared her for her most important patient: Her father, Younis Mansi Essa. He suffered from chronic liver failure and was on dialysis for nearly 21 years. The hospital was his second home. Younis spent much of his time with healthcare professionals, developing meaningful relationships. "They loved him. They loved his smile," says Dena of her father. Younis, who was born and raised in Palestine, is the driving force behind this scholarship for students pursuing their degrees in the healthcare field.

Eligibility and Requirements:

- Be currently enrolled or accepted into an undergraduate program at an accredited university or community college in Southeast Michigan
 - A list of eligible schools are located on page 3-4
- Must be studying in the healthcare field (i.e. nursing, physician assistants, surgical and ultrasound technicians, respiratory therapists, etc)
- GPA and Test Scores:
 - For high school seniors, must have a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or higher and ACT score of 24 or higher, or SAT score of 1160 or higher (test scores optional this year due to COVID-19)
 - For currently enrolled undergraduate students, must have a cumulative GPA of 3.4 or higher
